Phone

JMG. Junior Master Gardener. Completion Form (For Certificates - Duplicate as Needed)

Upon completion of the JMG curriculum requirements, fill out this form to request JMG Certificates for your group members. Mail the completed form to Junior Master Gardener Program, 2134 TAMU, 225 HFSB, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843-2134,

Name	Circle certification earned by these students: — JMG Level One certifications available from the JMG Teacher/Leader Guide:	Estimate the total numb of hours of service your group performed.*
	A. Certified Junior Master Gardener (for students completing requirements in all eight chapters)	total hours of servi
	Golden Ray Series Certification in: (for students completing requirements in a smaller unit of study) B. Plant Growth & Development C. Soils & Water D. Insects & Plant Diseases E. Ecology & Environmental Horticulture	* This is just a rough estimate of the number of hours your group worked to complete you service project(s) multiplied by the number of youths taking part in the effort. For example
	F. Landscape Horticulture G. Fruit & Nutrition H. Vegetables & Herbs I. Life Skills & Career Exporation	if your class spent about six total hours working on a project and there are 20 students in your group, that would be a total of 120 hours of service contributed by your group.
	J. new! Growing a Vegetable Garden other Golden Ray Series recognition certifcate options: K. Health & Nutrition from the Garden L. Wildlife Gardener
	M. Literature from the Garden certifications available from Operation Thistle or Operation WATER
	N. Plant Growth & Development O. Soils & Water
Geacher/leader name:	Signature:	_ Date:
Certificates should be mailed to the	e following address: City	State ZIP

email: