Randy Seagraves is a Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Program Specialist & Curriculum Director for the International Junior Master Gardener program. A former 3rd grade teacher in College Station ISD, Randy is the lead author of 8 JMG® curriculum guides, including the new, evidence-based Learn, Grow, Eat & GO! curriculum. He guest lectures for horticulture and education courses at Texas A&M, guest hosts for the Weekend Gardener television segment for local CBS affiliate in College Station and he regularly speaks at regional, state & national conferences across in the US and South Korea.

“Created by teachers, this TEKS-based, multifaceted school garden curriculum is fun and academically rich. Through a linear set of hands-on, proven lessons, your students step through process of establishing a thriving garden that is easy to create and maintain!”

Training Cost:

- $55, includes copy of Learn, Grow, Eat & Go! curriculum & 5hr CPE certificate
- Free– Without a Book
